COURT OF DELAWARE:	§

ROBERT S. BRIA,	§
	§
Petitioner.	§

Submitted: June 1, 2023
Decided: June 13, 2023

ORDER

It appears to the Court that:

(1) On February 27, 2014, this Court suspended the petitioner, Robert S. Bria, from the practice of law in Delaware for six months and one day beginning March 4, 2014 and ending September 5, 2014. On January 26, 2021, Bria filed a petition for reinstatement. After holding a hearing, the Board on Professional Responsibility filed a report recommending that Bria be reinstated subject to the joint stipulated conditions proffered by Bria and the Office of Disciplinary Counsel.

(2) On May 27, 2021, this Court accepted the recommendation of the Board and reinstated Bria to the Bar, subject to the joint stipulated conditions. The conditions included a two-year probation period.

(3) On June 1, 2023 Bria filed a petition for termination of his probation under Disciplinary Procedure Rule 20. He also filed an affidavit stating that he had complied with the conditions of his probation. The period of probation has expired, and Bria has filed the necessary affidavit as required for termination of probation under Rule 20(a) of the Delaware Lawyers' Rules of Disciplinary Procedure. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel does not oppose the termination of probation.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the probationary period is terminated and Robert S. Bria, Esquire is discharged from probation.
